

: Captain K. O'Day Commander USCGC Morgenthau and Admiral J. Breckenridge answering question from the guests

The USCG Cutter Morgenthau,
a 378' High Endurance Cutter in port at USCG Island, Alameda will, by popular demand, once again be hosting the annual Boats' n Kids season kickoff Day

The program is geared toward children ages 5 through 12.
 While taking a tour on the Cutter the children will stop at different stations to learn boating safety tips and how to prevent accidents.

The program also features a Environmental safety demonstration.

In addition to boating safety members of the Coast Guard will talk about the different missions of the Cutter.
 Only for parties interested, officers will on request share their experience of attending the USCG Academy.

A boat rescue demonstration* will be performed by USCG Station San Francisco

To conclude the event
USCG Air Station San Francisco will perform a Helicopter rescue demonstration***

The Event is free of charge. Early registration is required.
